

Carmel Runners Club Scholarship Application

Carmel Runners Club, in conjunction with our scholarship underwriters, is proud to sponsor this scholarship! This is a one-time scholarship awarded to Hamilton County graduating seniors whose lives have been positively impacted by running.

Steps to Complete the Application – Deadline for submission: April 15, 2022

A. The applicant is required to...

1. Be a resident of Hamilton County and/or have a member of Carmel Runners provide a reference.
2. Have been a member of your high school cross country and/or track team for least two years or have participated in at least 4 verifiable races (5K or longer) within the last two years.
3. Have been accepted into or plan to enroll in an accredited college or university fall of 2022.
4. Currently have at least a 3.0 (4.0 scale) high school GPA.
5. Display satisfactory progress towards graduation for 2022.
6. Have completed references from at least two adults who are non-relatives. These should be in a signed and sealed envelope.
7. Be available to present himself/herself to the Selection Committee upon request.

B. Applicant's paperwork should include:

1. Completed Application Form. Attached below.
2. Two completed, sealed, and signed nomination letters from adults who are not parents or relatives. These letters should demonstrate how running has had a significant impact on the applicant's life.
3. One page, single spaced (approx 500 words) written essay. Topic attached below.
4. A copy of your current high school transcript, verifying your most recent GPA.

C. Submit your applicant's paperwork to the Carmel Runners Club Board

This application may be completed by mail using the form below, or online by visiting <http://www.carmelrunners.net/carmel-runners-club-scholarship/>

Essay Topic:

One-page (8.5x11) single spaced (approx 500 words) essay responding to the following questions:

- Why do I run?
- Who inspired me to start running and how did they convince me?
- How has running had a significant impact on my life?
- How will I apply what I learned through running to my future?
- Who continues to inspire me for running and/or scholarship?
